THE ALASKANS KICK

Want Voice in the A. T. P. Exposition.

DELEGATE COLE MAKES TALK

Says Carelessness of Fair Officials in Slighting Prominent Northerners Will Work Detriment and Opposition to Their Plans.

SEATTLE, Oct. 2.—Alaskans, while deeply interested in the success of the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition, feel that they have been slighted by the exposition management, according to Thomas Cole, Alaska's delegate to Congress. The people from the North feel that the fair officials have not consulted bona fide Alaskan residents, as much as they should.

"There are competent men in Alaska who could fill positions with the exposition," said Mr. Cole. "The overlooking of this body of Alaskan residents has been through carelessness, doubtless, but it has aroused a feeling that should not exist. The primary object of the exposition, as I understand it, is the exploitation of Alaska and its resources. What men are more competent to do this than actual residents of that country? I sincerely hope that efforts will be made to offset this feeling in the North for it will be detrimental to the fair if it is not done away with at once.

Delegate Cole arrived in Seattle yesterday morning on the Northwestern, coming here from Nome, where he spent a week. He visited St. Michaels and other Alaskan cities after leaving his home at Fairbanks. When informed of the recent railroad troubles at Valdez, he said:

"The people of Alaska," he said, "regard the conduct of these foreign corporations who are acquiring interests in Alaska, as very little better than that of highwaymen, for the reason that they have brought in a very undesirable class of people. These are the laborers who are brought in and organized into camps of bandits. They have taken the law into their own hands, and we feel as if our intelligence was insulted by their conduct. It is the duty of the federal government to put a stop to these outrages, and to prosecute those who are guilty of causing them. If we had a government of our own, it is certain that these people would be prosecuted.

"People censure laboring men for organizing into labor unions for their mutual benefit, but applaud when they are organized and fight for a corporation. These imported laborers are not the typical American workman or Alaskans. The majority of them are nothing more than an irresponsible lot of hirelings. "Alaska needs home rule. We need a legislature of from twenty to twenty-five members to meet as one body. I do not believe the country is ready as yet for county or township rule. We do need a territorial secretary, treasurer, attorney-general and superintendent of public instruction. These, with the legislature, for the present, would meet all requirements.

"I do not believe the need of home government admits of argument. The people are intelligent enough to govern themselves. I maintain, as do all Americans, that whenever a territory or community asks for a local legislature that they are entitled to it for the reason that they are willing to assume all responsibilities, financial or otherwise.

"Alaska is not confronted with as many difficulties as have been most territories when organized and which later become prosperous states. Take my home state of Wisconsin, for instance. It then included the present states of Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, the Dakotas and parts of other states, and had but a small fraction of the population Alaska now has, and her ability to maintain home government did not compare with that of Alaska.

"Alaska's resources are far greater than those of any territory that was ever organized, with the exception of Oklahoma. Alaska is the only territory that was at the time of its organization self-supporting, with the same exception. This territory has paid back into the treasury of the United States, which was $7,200,000, and has also paid $2,800,000 additional. No other territory has such a balance on its side of the sheet.

"A territory and a people that can produce a revenue to that extent, in such a short time, requires no further argument in its support.

"Another reason for asking for territorial government is that there are many things of vast importance to us which look very insignificant at and to Washington. Besides it is asking too much of congress to devote its time and attention to the details of Alaskan legislation. We simply ask that we be permitted to govern ourselves, and we will relieve congress of that annoyance and trouble.

"There are several matters that we do not ask for power to control, but ask the federal government to give more attention to them. Among these are the lighthouse and lifesaving stations. The federal government has been criminally negligent, so far as Alaska lighthouse protection is concerned.

"In congress I aim to advance the cause of home rule, but will also ask for changes in the mining laws, which will correct present abuses, and will urge more lighthouses and lifesaving stations. Anything calling for the protection of the seal fisheries will also receive my hearty support."

Hard Times in Kansas.

The old days of grasshoppers and drouth are almost forgotten in the prosperous Kansas of today; although a citizen of Codell, Earl Shamburg, has not yet forgotten a hard time he encountered. He says: "I was worn out and discouraged by coughing night and day, and could find no relief till I tried Dr. King's New Discovery. It took less than one bottle to completely cure me." The safest and most reliable cough and cold remedy and lung and throat healer ever discovered. Guaranteed by Charles Rogers' drug store. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

GETS ROUTE TO PITTSBURG.

New York Central Leaves Right-of-Way From Arcadia, Pa.

PITTSBURG, Oct.—The Vanderbuilt interests have at last out-generated the Pennsylvania Railroad, the Wabash and the Gould interest, and have completed their plans for running the New York Central directly into Pittsburg at a point from which they can reach New York City by a route 70 miles shorter than is now traversed by it. It was announced at Pittsburg today that F. A. Long, one of the New York Central engineers, who has had charge of the work of survey, has been called to New York for a final conference.

The line is an extension of the branch which now runs to Arcadia in Jefferson county. The new line will cross Indiana and Westmoreland counties, following the Sewickley creek to the Yougaigeheny river near Sutterville. Here it will join the tracks of the Pittsburg & Lake Erie, a Vanderbuilt interest, and from this point will enter Pittsburg.

His Dear Old Mother.

"My dear old mother, who is now 83 years old, thrives on Electric Bitters," writes W. B. Brunson, of Dublin, Ga. "She has taken them for about two years and enjoys an excellent appetite, feels strong and sleeps well." That's the way Electric Bitters affect the aged, and the same happy results follow in all cases of female weakness and general debility. Weak, puny children too, are greatly strengthened by them. Guaranteed also for stomach, liver and kidney troubles, by Charles Rogers' druggist, 50c.

A Criminal Attack on an inoffensive citizens is frequently made in that apparently useless tube, the "appendix." It's generally the result of protracted constipation, following liver torpor. Dr. King's New Life Pills regulate the liver, prevent appendicitis, and establish regular habits of the bowels. 25c at Charles Rogers' drug store.

Bad breath is a most offensive ailment, irritates you as well as your friends; Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea takes the bad taste from the mouth, removes the cause, purifies the breath. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. Frank Hart.
